Jesus Christ appears to the disciples and sends them on their mission with the power to forgive or retain sins through the Holy Spirit.

(John 20:19-23)

Pentecost Sunday

Fifty days ago, we celebrated the great feast of Easter. Jesus rose from the dead and made many appearances with his disciples. He took away their fear and gave them the courage to be his followers. He promised he would always be with them. A few days after that promise, they witness his Ascension into heaven. What do they do? Once again, they become afraid and lock themselves in the upper room.

As he promised though He sends His Spirit and we hear of that in the first reading today. The Spirit comes upon the disciples, they lose their fear and they go out and courageously proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord. People from all over were present and the disciples were understood by all no matter what their native language. As we know, this was the birth day of the Church. Some three thousand were joined that day.

Most of us have been baptized and confirmed. We have received the Holy Spirit and the seven gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel (we judge best how we should act), fortitude (we have strength to follow through on what we know is right course of action), knowledge, piety (willingness to worship and serve God out of love not just duty), and wonder and awe (we recognize the greatness of God and can hardly take it all in). But have we allowed the Holy Spirit to work in us and make these gifts active in our lives?

St. Paul reminds us today that there are many gifts and forms of service but they are all rooted in the same Spirit. We are all one in Christ. We all have a part to play in the Body of Christ. We should never compare ourselves to another and think we don't belong to the church or we are not holy or good enough. The Spirit works in each one of us for the good of all. We just have to be willing to work with the Spirit in us.

Por Que El Fuego y El Viento?

El fuego nos atrae, nos calienta, nos penetra, brilla y aleja la oscuridad. El fuego arde y purifica... consume todo lo que toca: solo se puede tener a distancia... es signo de la santidad de Dios.

El viento arrebató, nos vuelve por todas partes. Es el lenguaje de la grandeza de Dios. Es el reflejo de su penetrante dulzura. Mediante estas dos fuerzas Dios nos enseña algo de El.

Para este acontecimiento Dios escoge un día en que hay hombres de todas las naciones en Jerusalem.

Dios quiere que se comprenda que la Iglesia comienza a existir por obra y fuerza del Espíritu Santo. Todos entienden el mensaje a pesar de las distintas culturas, Dios es una comunión de personas... así también debe ser la Iglesia.

Los Apóstoles se transformaron en verdaderos testigos, es decir, hombres que proclaman la Buena Nueva sin temor... con entusiasmo... con grande alegría... porque están dispuestos a dar todo para ganar a Cristo...

Para que siga ardiendo, hay que echar más leña al fuego... así los bautizados deben mantener contacto con el Espíritu Santo... mediante la oración... buenas obras... y creer firmemente que EL ha resucitado y vive entre nosotros.

DOMINGO DE PENTECOSTES

"RECIBAN EL ESPÍRITU SANTO." Después de saludar a sus discípulos con el deseo de Paz y perdón les da el Don del Espíritu Santo y les envía en su Nombre al mundo. El Espíritu Santo es la fuerza vital del cristiano. El Espíritu Santo es animador y santificador de la Iglesia. Déjense guiar por El que es fuego y es don. Vivan el espíritu nuevo que Yo les doy. Sean signos de alegría y esperanza. Sean mis testigos en medio del mundo. Con la Iglesia decimos: Ven, Espíritu Santo, llena los corazones de tus fieles y enciende en ellos el fuego de tu amor!
