From the desk of Fr. Joe...

Mother of Mercy House

Three years ago at our Clergy Convocation, Archbishop Chaput told us that we may have to become creative in how we do "Church" in the future. He was referring to some of the poorest sections of our city and archdiocese where outreach is needed. He said, "If anyone wants to open a storefront church, let me know." Well, two of our priests approached the Archbishop independently of each other and expressed interest.

This year at our Clergy Convocation, Archbishop Chaput announced that two of our priests, Fr. Joseph Devlin and Fr. William Murphy will give up their parishes and move into an old taproom in Kensington to begin this new ministry. Beginning in mid-June, Mother of Mercy House will begin its operation at G and Westmoreland Streets.

It is my hope that as this new way of ministering to the people of our city begins, Saint William Parish can assist in some way. I will keep in touch with the two priests and as they assess their needs maybe we can help out in some way. I will let you know more about it as I find out myself.

In the meantime, I wanted you to be aware of this new effort and to ask for your prayers for the success of Frs. Devlin and Murphy in their outreach to the poorest of the poor in our city.

I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord

(Psalm 116)

THANKSGIVING

The word “thanksgiving” most often calls to our mind the holiday in November. But as early as the middle of the second century Justin Martyr referred to the blessed bread and wine of the Lord’s Supper as “food we call ‘thanksgiving’” (in Greek eucharistia). The Thanksgiving we celebrate in the autumn is at times marked by a sort of proud societal self-congratulation and the consumption of food until we sink into an inert stupor. The “thanksgiving” that we call our Eucharist is just the opposite: we are led to it by an acknowledgment of our own failings; we remember our humble place in the scheme of things by giving praise to God alone.

While the food of Christ’s body and blood fills our spiritual hungers, it also creates in us a greater hunger. We are not sent to our spiritual sofas to let the Lord’s Supper settle; we are sent to be living signs of that thanksgiving for the world by looking out for the poor and powerless, feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, speaking out against the self righteous. In short, the hunger created by our doing in remembrance of Christ must lead us to living in remembrance of him.

FESTIVIDAD DEL CUERPO Y LA SANGRE DE CRISTO

"ESTO ES MI CUERPO". "ESTA ES MI SANGRE"! La fiesta de Corpus nos recuerda y celebra la Presencia Real de Cristo en la Eucaristía. Nos hace volver a la Última Cena donde Jesús tomó el pan en sus manos, lo bendijo y se lo dió a sus discípulos diciendo: " tomen y coman porque esto es mi Cuerpo; esta es mi Sangre". Como Jesús sació el hambre de las gentes, hoy sacia nuestra hambre de Dios. La Eucaristía es el resumen de todas las maravillas que ha hecho el Señor. Que fuertes y sanos somos si nos alimentamos del Cuerpo y la Sangre del Señor.
