From the desk of Fr. Joe...

Happy 4th of July Weekend!

As I mentioned last week, we have two missionaries with us for the weekend. It's a crazy weekend to do a missionary appeal but this is the time they had available. I hope you will welcome them and be as generous as you can. I'm afraid Mass attendance will be lower due to the Holiday Weekend so I thank you in advance for your generosity.

This weekend concludes the Fortnight for Freedom. We are asked to pray for Religious Freedom, one of the founding principles that this Nation was founded upon, which is now being challenged in different ways. For more information on this I invite you to visit the Archdiocesan website.

I hope all you enjoyed, or are enjoying this Holiday.

May God bless you and May God bless the United States of America.

They shall know that a prophet has been among them

- Ezekiel 2:2-5

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST

Mark's Gospel account today is built on a double astonishment or amazement: the neighbors and family of Jesus are astonished that he taught in the synagogue with wisdom and worked powerful signs. Jesus, in turn, is amazed that they have no faith in him because they know his origins, not because of any fault with his teaching or ministry.

As with many of Mark's passages, we get a rather intimate glimpse here of the human part of Jesus' two-fold nature. To reinforce his point, Mark tells of Jesus' return to his native place, and further points out that he is in the midst of his own family members there. From the very people he expected the most, Jesus received the least. In the day of the Gospel's writing, Mark was attempting to illustrate a lesson to the house of Israel: the God of the covenant expected the greatest faith from the house of Israel, but often received the least. This is a good source for reflection on our part, we who are Jesus' followers today. For the wisdom of Christ to continue and for our lives to be seen as signs of his power, he must expect and be able to find great faith among us. Will he? Can he? Does he? Or is he, once again, amazed by its absence?

CARTA ENCÍCLICA "LAUDATO SÍ" DEL SANTO PADRE FRANCISCO SOBRE EL CUIDADO DE LA CASA COMÚN:

"Alabado seas, mi Señor," cantaba san Francisco de Asís. En ese hermoso cántico nos recordaba que nuestra casa común es también como una hermana, con la cual compartimos la existencia, y como una madre bella que nos acoge entre sus brazos: "Alabado seas, mi Señor, por la hermana nuestra madre tierra, la cual nos sustenta, y gobierna y produce diversos frutos con coloridas flores y hierba"
