An Adoration Chapel Makeover

One of our young parishioners, Brendan Guy, is striving to become an Eagle Scout. In order for him to accomplish this goal, he must complete an Eagle Scout project.

Brendan met with me and we discussed some possibilities. The one I suggested the most was to remove the carpet in the Adoration Chapel and replace it with a tile floor. The carpet in the chapel gets a lot of wear and tear and it is showing its age at this point.

I think a vinyl tile floor will give it a nice appearance and it will be easier to clean. I am aware that many people like to kneel in the chapel and so we will also invest in some kneeling pads for that purpose.

In the next few weeks, Brendan will be doing a fundraiser to help pay for the project. I ask that you assist him by purchasing items at the bake sale that he will conduct in the church vestibule.

I thank you in advance for your support of this project. Know that we will have to close the chapel for a day or two while the work is performed and completed. In the end, the chapel will be clean and a beautiful place to spend some quiet time with the Lord.

THE GIFT OF PEACE

We are offered another vision in today's second reading, a vision of the New Jerusalem, "coming down out of heaven from God" (Revelation 21:10). Read between the lines describing the radiant city, and we find that the greatest beauty revealed is the beauty of perfect symmetry and order, a city founded on the faith of the twelve tribes of Israel and the Twelve Apostles, lit only by the glory of God.

The first reading and the Gospel are linked to this idealized description of the New Jerusalem. In both we read of distress and disturbance countered by the gift of peace. "[M]y peace I give to you," Jesus assures his disciples at the Last Supper (John 14:27). In keeping with that gift, the apostles and elders, in the reading from Acts, decide not to disturb the peace of new Gentile believers. The undue burden of circumcision will not be imposed on them.
